Description: Cotton Malone retired from the high-risk world of elite operatives for the U.S. Justice Department to lead the low-key life of a rare-book dealer. But his quiet existence is shattered when he receives an anonymous e-mail: "You have something I want. You're the only person on earth who knows where to find it. Go get it. You have 72 hours. If I don't..."

Review: I have read all of Steve Berrys books and this is the most boring book Ive read to-date, although The Jefferson key was also boring. Hes not developing his characters and plot as well as his previous books. It lacks the charisma Im so used to in Berrys books. Also parts were like a horror story. The main characters mostly seem to be bad guys...
